Parking Infringements

Council Rangers are authorised to regulate car parking areas in the Armidale Local Government area. These officers ensure that signs are obeyed and that motorists do not stop or park in prohibited areas.

Car parking enforcement ensures regular vehicle movement, as well as the availability of car parking spaces.

What do I do if I receive a parking infringement?

If you receive a parking infringement notice, you have 21 days to arrange your payment. Payment is made to Revenue NSW.

How do I pay my parking infringement?

There are a number of ways to pay:

- Online – <http://www.revenue.nsw.gov.au/> (Mastercard and Visa are accepted)
- Phone – 1300 138 118
- BillPay – at any Post Office
- Post your payment slip with a cheque / money order payable to:

Revenue NSW
P O Box 786
Strawberry Hills NSW 2012

Note: Ensure that you write the Penalty Notice Number clearly on the back of your cheque / money order

What if I disagree with the Parking Infringement, or have a valid reason for parking in that space?

All representation with parking infringements are handled by Revenue NSW, not Council. Revenue NSW assesses all representations regarding infringements along strict guidelines to determine whether leniency may be granted. They contact Council for clarification of any issues regarding your infringement
